Australian NGO Cooperation Program ANCP

The ANCP is a unique Australian aid program.

It is a partnership between the Australian Government and highly effective Australian Non-Government Organisations (NGOs).
For over 40 years, this partnership has supported the most disadvantaged in communities around the world.

In Summary

The ANCP improves the lives of millions of people every year.

ANCP NGOs help to build strong and stable institutions, increase access to healthcare and education, empower women and girls, improve access to safe water and sanitation, reduce inequalities, and much more.

ANCP NGOs are vital development partners.

ANCP NGOs have specialist skills and strong connections with communities in Australia and overseas. The Australian Government's Foreign Policy White Paper recognises that NGOs create greater prosperity and stability in our region.

The ANCP supports the Australian Government's commitment to strengthen civil society internationally.

ANCP NGOs – as civil society actors – can be powerful agents for change, and play a crucial role in preserving and advancing human rights around the globe.

The ANCP connects Australia's aid program to the Australian public.

ANCP NGOs contribute to their ANCP projects using funds raised from the Australian community. They also collaborate with Australian academic institutions and businesses to deliver their projects.

ANCP NGOs are trusted partners.

Australian NGOs must be accredited by the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade to receive ANCP funding. This involves a thorough and independent assessment of each NGO's structure, philosophies, policies and practices.

The ANCP promotes locally-led and sustainable development.

ANCP projects are run in collaboration with the people they assist – strengthening the capacity of the individuals, institutions and communities involved.

The ANCP is a significant and global program.

Supporting over 55 NGOs to deliver around 450 projects in more than 50 countries each year, it is the Australian Government's largest NGO program.
