

Statistical Summary

Table A1: Australia's aid program:
what does it all mean? ($m)

Australian Agency for International Development
The Australian Government's Overseas Aid Program

Table A1: Australia's aid program: what does it all mean ? ($m)

	1995-96	1996-97	1997-98
ODA Official Development Assistance: provided by official agencies, aid eligible payments to Part I Countries as per the DAC list of aid recipients (Appendix 2) ODA tables are included in this publication for the purpose of describing ODA/GNP ratio; a standard international comparison between donor countries.	1,556.5	1,432.0	1,443.1
OA Official Aid: provided by official agencies, aid eligible payments to Part II Countries as per the DAC list of aid recipients (Appendix 2)	3.4	0.3	0.2
OOF Other Official Flows: provided by official agencies, non-aid eligible payments to Part I and Part II countries.	2.6	2.6	3.0
Revenue Non-budgetary revenue (a component of AusAID Running Costs). These amounts are not eligible to be counted as aid.	2.2	4.8	6.8
Total aid flows (ODA + OA) Most tables throughout this publication describe Total aid flows: all aid eligible payments benefiting all aid eligible countries.	1,559.9	1,432.4	1,443.3
Total official flows (ODA + OA + OOF) Not described throughout this publication. Total official flows are all payments (whether aid eligible or not) made by official agencies (Commonwealth or State) to Part I and Part II Countries.	1,562.5	1,435.0	1,446.4
Gross expenditure (ODA + OA + OOF + Revenue)	1,564.8	1,439.8	1,453.2

Described by program at Tables A2 & A3: included for comparative purposes with Tables 4 & 5 of the AusAID Budget Paper, "Australia's Overseas Aid Program 1999-2000".
