

Australia Awards Fellowships - Round 13 Applications funded by AusAID

Australian Host Organisation	Development Issue	Partner Countries	No. of Fellows	Fellowship Program Title	Fellowship Description
International WaterCentre	Water and Sanitation	Indonesia	16	Water supply management in the context of Integrated Water	Through this program, fellows will gain knowledge to applying principles of integrated water management (IWM) to ensure the sustainable provision of local water supply in Indonesia.
Queensland University of Technology	Governance	Bangladesh	21	TRAINING ON SECTOR-WIDE APPROACH: PUBLIC POLICY, FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT AND DONOR RELATIONS	This fellowship will be a customised training focusing on strengthening the competencies of mid-to high level officials, mainly from the Economic relations Division of the Bangladeshi Ministry of Finance and selected representatives from service agencies, who are significantly involved in program development and management on sector-wide approach (SWAp).
Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC)	Regional Stability	Indonesia	2	Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC)-Imigrasi Border Management Fellowship Program	The Fellowship is designed to further develop Imigrasi leadership capacity and border management expertise, fostering a greater shared understanding of cross-government migration management issues and allowing the potential for further skills development with Imigrasi on other cross-cutting immigration priorities.
Queensland Department of Education, Training and Employment	Education	Tonga	4	Leadership Mentoring Program for increasing Education Resilience for Tongan Staff and Students	This program offers School Management an opportunity to further develop their leadership capabilities as well as building and developing staff and student resilience. Sustainable school-based approaches to mentoring and professional development strategies will be explored to increase student engagement and educational outcomes.
University of Southern Queensland	Gender	Pakistan	18	Empowering Women through Entrepreneurship, Innovation and Business Sustainability in Pakistan	The program will provide fellows with best practices and lessons learnt from successful female Australian entrepreneurs and women-operated Small and Medium Size Enterprises, through a specially developed entrepreneurship, innovation and business sustainability program aimed at building the knowledge, skills and capabilities of female entrepreneurs and small business leaders in Pakistan.
Australian Competition & Consumer Commission (ACCC)	Economic Growth	Vietnam	2	Competition and consumer law training program for officials of the Vietnam Competition Authority (VCA)	Two month secondment for two Fellows to learn about the ACCC's competition and consumer protection work and role and structure of the ACCC's InfoCentre.
Queensland University of Technology	Water and Sanitation	Sri Lanka	15	Building Climate Change Resilience Through Integrated Water Resource Management	Training in best practice in Integrated Water Resources Management under climate change will be provided to civil, state and media professionals engaged as volunteers in NetWater outreach activities to strengthen the multi-stakeholder initiatives of this civil society organisation supporting the right to water and sanitation for Sri Lanka's vulnerable groups.
Sight For All Limited	Health	Laos	1	Paediatric Ophthalmology Fellowship Lao PDR	An ophthalmologist from Vientiane Ophthalmology Centre (VOC) in Lao will undertake a 3-month fellowship in paediatric ophthalmology in Adelaide. On completion, Dr Sonchai will return to the leading ophthalmic teaching centre in Vientiane as the first paediatric ophthalmologist in his country.
Chisholm Institute of TAFE	Education	Ethiopia	18	Trainers of Trainers – (ToT) of Ethiopian TVET	Trainers of Trainers (ToT) Ethiopian TVET program will develop trade and teaching capability of fourteen TVET trainers in four industries of economic growth. Four TVET managers will participate to gain experience to inform future directions and appreciate context when Fellows present innovations to further inform TVET Reforms.
The University of Adelaide	Health	Myanmar	12	Skills Training of Medical Staff of the University of Medicine (1), Yangon, Myanmar	The Fellows will participate in teaching and training programs at the University of Adelaide and its affiliated hospitals - with the intention of skills transfer. Upon return to Myanmar, the Fellows will in a position to promote the building of near term and future capacity in medical education in Myanmar.
Monash University	Governance	Sri Lanka	25	Building strategic leadership skills to achieve national development targets through effective horizontal coordination	This project will train key personnel in strategic central government development ministry in: 1) modern management techniques; 2) strategic leadership skills, (3) policy and program development and 4) strategic use of IT for efficient service delivery to achieve a well-coordinated holistic system.
The University of Queensland	Environment	Vietnam	20	Improving research skills to support policy development and implementation: from national to provincial level	Through a combination of skills development, expert input and experiential learning, the program aims to improve the capacity of leaders from Vietnam's government organisations to improve the quality of research and better align research outputs to inform policy, planning and implementation in coastal resource management and climate change adaptation.
Institute of Continuing & TESOL Education, The University of Queensland (ICTE-UQ)	Education	Vietnam	15	Language Teaching Management Training for Regional Language Program Coordinators	The Language Teaching Management Training program aims to build the capacity of Vietnamese Language Program Coordinators within regional Departments of Education and Training to effectively lead and manage the National Priority Program in Teaching and Learning Foreign Languages through targeted professional discipline-specific training in leadership, strategic and project management.
Nossal Institute Limited	Health	Nepal, India, Bangladesh	15	Strengthening quantitative research skills for South Asian public health practitioners	The proposed program will provide a comprehensive overview of quantitative research methods for participants from government, non-government and research agencies working in the field of public health in South Asian countries.
Flinders University	Gender	Cambodia, Indonesia, Mongolia, Vietnam	18	Enabling Social Inclusion: Gender and Disability Responsive Good Governance	This Fellowship advances regional reform through the development of appropriately trained Cambodian, Indonesian, Mongolian and Vietnamese leaders who can effectively participate in high level decision making processes and efficiently lead national, regional and local policy, programs and projects that promote disability-inclusive and gender sensitive approaches to socio-economic development.
The University of Sydney	Governance	Cambodia	15	Capacity building for Cambodian Legal and Judicial Practitioners	The program will contribute towards the establishment of a commercial chamber attached to the current capital and provincial courts of Cambodia. With courses in contract law, commercial law, finance law and international business law the training will prepare participants to assume new positions as specialised commercial judges and judicial trainers.
Department of Infrastructure and Transport	Governance	Indonesia	8	Australia-Indonesia Maritime and Aviation Transport Security	The program will provide short-term attachments for eight Indonesian MoT officials, four from the Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA), and four from the Directorate General of Sea Transportation (DGST) to strengthen their transport security skills and expertise. The officials will undertake training, workshops and site-visits in security audit activities and standards.
University of Sydney (Sydney Medical School)	Health	Timor Leste	16	Timor Leste Health Leaders Program – Developing Timorese health leaders	The Fellowship assists in the development of health professionals (clinicians, nurses, public health practitioners, managers, policymakers, researchers and educators) from Timor Leste. This capacity-building program involves individualised mentoring, placement and training plans that meet the learning goals of each Fellow in the context of workforce requirements.
International WaterCentre	Environment	Vietnam, Sri Lanka, Laos, Indonesia, Philippines	10	Water Leadership for River Basin Organisations in Asia	This program will provide staff from River Basin Organisations in Asia with the leadership skills required to influence, drive change and advance river basin management. It will provide Fellows with an opportunity to learn from Australian practice and reflect on the applicability of these practices in their home context.
Nossal Institute Limited	Health	Cambodia, Vietnam	12	Police as collaborative leaders in responding to HIV	A joint fellowship between the Nossal Institute for Global Health (NI) and the Australian Institute of Police Management (AIPM), which seeks to provide aspiring South East Asian police leaders and trainers with the leadership and public health skills and knowledge to act as leaders in the regional response to HIV.
Griffith University	Governance	Mongolia	16	Leadership, Change Management and Sustainable Governance Framework	The Leadership, Change Management and Sustainable Governance Framework will introduce Fellows from Mongolia, who are strategically placed to influence change in Mongolia, to a range of approaches and frameworks that underpin sustainable governance and have potential to be customised for implementation in Mongolia.
Flinders University	Disability and development	Indonesia, Nepal	25	Capacity Building for Quality Development in Inclusive Education: Nepal and Indonesia	This program builds on a previous Fellowship conducted with Indonesia and will now be expanded to include Fellows from Nepal. The program is designed to extend the Fellows capacity to support quality developments in inclusive and special education in their countries through their experiences in Australia.
Sight For All Limited	Health	Myanmar	1	Glaucoma Fellowship Myanmar	An ophthalmologist from Yangon Eye Hospital in Myanmar will undertake a 12-month fellowship in the treatment of glaucoma in South Australia. On completion, Dr Thet will return to the major ophthalmic teaching centre in Yangon as the leading glaucoma specialist in her country.
The University of Sydney	Economic Growth	Myanmar	15	Myanmar: Improving Capacity in International Tax	The program will contribute to economic growth in Myanmar by improving the capacity of the Internal Revenue Department to protect Myanmar's tax base from international tax minimisation practices. Training will cover principles in international taxation, tax treaties, transfer pricing, tax planning and tax enforcement.

Australian Host Organisation	Development Issue	Partner Countries	No. of Fellows	Fellowship Program Title	Fellowship Description
Australian Catholic University	Education	Kiribati, Tonga	12	Accountable leaders: improving teaching and learning through research-based practice (Pacific)	This program strengthens educational leaders capacity to apply research-based practice for the improvement of teaching quality and learning outcomes. In addition to foregrounding ethical and moral responsibility, Fellows will strengthen their capacity for accountability by applying action research process and procedures to student progress and whole school improvement.
The University of Sydney	Health	Indonesia, Myanmar, Nigeria, Tanzania, Zambia	20	Global Intensive Professional Program in HIV (GIPPH)	HIV/AIDS presents a major public health challenge particularly affecting resource-limited countries, leading to increased demand for enhancing educational and research skills. GIPPH provides opportunity to engage in the reciprocal exchange of skills, ideas and opinions that are likely to contribute to significant improvements to HIV/AIDS response in all participating countries.
University of Melbourne	Economic Growth	Vietnam	25	Legal Education and Training for Vietnamese Ministry of Justice Officials: International Trade and Investment Law (Vietnam)	The 'Legal Education and Training for Vietnamese Ministry of Justice Officials: International Trade and Investment Law' program (Program) is an academic and skill-building program designed by senior Melbourne Law School (MLS) faculty members (in consultation with the Ministry of Justice, Vietnam (MoJ)) specifically for MoJ officials in leadership positions.
Southern Cross University	Education	Cambodia	4	Human Rights, Corruption and the Law: Enhancing Higher Education Teaching and Scholarship	Four Human Rights practitioners, selected on the basis of their academic excellence, leadership and potential, will work with Southern Cross University academics and advisors to develop capacity in curriculum design and research skills to promote higher education teaching, research and scholarly leadership in Human Rights, Corruption and the Law.
Australian Red Cross	Health	PNG, Vanuatu, Solomon Islands, Fiji, Samoa, Tonga, Kiribati, Tuvalu, Cook Islands, FSM	12	Pacific Transfusion Leaders Program	Leadership Program for established and emerging leaders in blood transfusion from Pacific countries.
Institute of Public Administration Australia NSW Division Inc. (IPAA)	Governance	Vietnam	15	Developing Best-Practice Public Sector Financial Management and Governance in Vietnam	The program will build the capacity of Vietnam's Ministry of Finance leaders to drive financial management and governance reforms in Vietnam's public sector agencies and State Owned Enterprises, by equipping leaders with best-practice financial management and governance frameworks, regulatory standards, systems and restructuring methodologies.
The University of Sydney	Education	Vietnam	7	Development of Speech Therapy Undergraduate Programs in Vietnam	No speech therapy degrees currently exist in Vietnam. This fellowship will provide training for leaders from two leading Vietnamese universities and allow them to develop an undergraduate program curriculum in speech therapy, based on the expertise of several University of Sydney academic and clinical staff who have worked in Vietnam.
James Cook University	Mining for Development	Central African Republic, Djibuti, Ethiopia, Ghana, Madagascar, Mali, South Africa, South Sudan, Togo	13	AfricaArray: Academic Staff Development in Geosciences in Africa	We will train African geoscientists at JCU in GIS and geochemistry for mining by providing advanced GIS training, and access to analytical facilities. Candidates will be selected from participants in the 2012 JCU, short-courses in GIS and Mining, and from institutions affiliated with AfricaArray.
Queensland University of Technology	Education	PNG	16	Strategic Leadership for Inclusive Education in Elementary Education in PNG	The proposed program is designed to build the capacity of key educators in PNG to progress Inclusive Education in elementary schools in PNG. It also builds on previous and current collaborations between the National Department of Education in PNG and QUT over many years.
Nossal Institute Limited	Health	Indonesia	8	Strengthening HIV prevention in Indonesia (Tanah Papua): building workforce capacity	In Tanah Papua, HIV prevalence is estimated at > 3%. Building leadership and technical capacity to develop/refine Government action plans is fundamental to accelerating the response for youth. This program will strengthen technical/leadership capacity and support coordination, planning and systems strengthening to respond to HIV for young people.
Brien Holden Vision Institute Foundation	Health	Cambodia, Fiji, India, Pakistan, PNG, Vietnam	18	Optometry Faculty Development Program	This program aims to up skill optometry faculty. It aims to improve the quality of the teaching, the resources used for teaching, and research capacity of optometry faculty.
CBM Australia	Disability and development	Indonesia, Vietnam, Nepal, India, Palestinian Territories	6	Strengthening Disability Inclusive Development in Asia	This Fellowship has been designed to enhance outcomes for people with disabilities by strengthening the capacity of the International Federation of Red Cross/Red Crescent Societies (IFRC) within Asia to implement disability inclusive development (DID) programs.
International Women's Development Agency Inc	Disability and development	Cambodia	9	Promoting inclusion of women with disabilities in Cambodia	This program aims to support Fellows to develop guidelines tailored to Cambodian organisations to include women with disabilities in their policies and programs, as well as to increase their leadership, advocacy and training skills of Fellows in order to be able to better influence policies and programs across different sectors.
Griffith University	Health	Bangladesh, Philippines, Indonesia, Vietnam, Nigeria, Tanzania	25	Public Health Leadership Professional Development Program in Emerging Health Challenges	The proposed program aims to build the leadership capacity of partner agencies to address emerging health challenges and reduce risks associated with urban development, emergency outbreaks, disasters and climate change.
Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists	Health	Solomon Islands, Fiji, Vanuatu	12	Pacific Midwifery Leadership Fellowship Program	The RANZCOG Pacific Midwifery Leadership Program is a seven week hospital-based program focussing on development of leadership skills, strengthening of research capacity and introduction of practice improvement techniques for senior clinical midwives and midwifery educators from the Pacific.
Asia Pacific Journalism Centre	Economic Growth	Indonesia, PNG, Fiji, Solomon Islands	11	Mining, Media and Development: Regional knowledge-sharing	A Fellowship to encourage more equitable and sustainable economic development from mining in Indonesia, PNG, Solomon Islands and Fiji, by improving the capacity of 10 senior journalists to analyse and report on mining and economic affairs so communities are better informed and business and government more accountable.
Flinders University of South Australia	Health	Ethiopia, Tanzania, South Sudan	25	Capacity building for Maternal and Child Health in East Africa	Fellows will develop plans to help their home institutions improve progress towards Millennium Development Goals concerning maternal and child health; produce a portfolio of knowledge, practices, policies and implementation strategies relevant to their plans; and create networks through team-building, work placements and site visits.
Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade	Governance	Philippines, Myanmar, Laos, Thailand, Cambodia, Vietnam, Timor Leste, Solomon Islands, PNG, Indonesia, Sri Lanka, Fiji, Tonga, Afghanistan, Nigeria, Jamaica, Pakistan, Egypt, Ethiopia	19	International Participation in Graduate Training (IPGT)	Two-month diplomacy training program for junior foreign diplomats alongside the department's 2013 graduate intake.
The Children's Hospital at Westmead	Health	Vietnam, Cambodia, Sierra Leone, Tonga, Kenya, Solomon Islands, Vanuatu	24	International Postgraduate Paediatric Leadership Program 2013	This program builds upon experience gained as an IPPC Tutor in each country and aims to further strengthen in-country health systems. It provides carefully planned lectures and workshops designed to develop education, leadership, management skills and best practice in paediatrics. The target population are our current, or future IPPC Tutors.
Mining Education Australia	Mining for Development	Colombia, Ecuador, Peru	9	Collaborative Leadership for Teaching Sustainable Mining Practices	This program will provide leadership training to key mining engineering educators of universities in Ecuador, Colombia and Peru. It will support collaborative curriculum development and research, coverage of sustainable mining practices and will build networks across these universities and with Mining Education Australia, preparing leaders for Latin America's mining boom.
Australian Rugby Union	Sports for Development	PNG, Solomon Islands, Samoa	4	Pacific Rugby Union Fellowship Program	Providing a program of professional development in Australia to build capacity of key staff members in Pacific based National Rugby Unions in the effective mamangement and long term sustainability of Development through Sport projects and administrative processes education.
University of Western Sydney	Education	Chile	1	Antarctic cities in regional development: science, education, culture in Hobart/Punta Arenas	Combining a series of activities (research training, professional placements, field visits, seminars) the program will allow a Chilean Fellow to study and evaluate Australia's leading Antarctic cultural, economic and research infrastructures in Hobart, as well as gain knowledge of Australia's world-class science communication and education frameworks.
Goodwill Consulting & Training International	Governance	Philippines	17	Developing an Institutional Mentoring Framework: Benchmarking of Workplace Learning and Development Practices	This is a benchmarking study tour which seeks to enable the leading members of PSTD, the Caucus of Development NGO Networks (CODE-NGO), and MINCODE to strengthen their mentoring competencies to build a 'culture of excellence' and enhance training quality in the area of workplace training and development and performance.
Queensland University of Technology	Disability and development	Maldives	10	Empowering People with Disability in the Maldives through Technical and Vocational Education and Training	The fellowship will assist the Maldives Institute of Technology (and its partners in the government and the disability sector) in developing engagement strategies for people with disability through technical and vocational education and training.

Australian Host Organisation	Development Issue	Partner Countries	No. of Fellows	Fellowship Program Title	Fellowship Description
The University of Newcastle	Health	Kenya, Botswana, South Africa	12	Building Health Systems Research Capacity to implementat the Millennium Development Goals.	Many African countries face a significant challenge in achieving the Health MDGs 4, 5 and 6. The capacity to undertake quality Health System requires enhancement. This Fellowship will build local capacity in Health System research and evaluation knowledge and skills in key African Universities towards achieving the MDGs.
TAFE NSW Sydney Institute	Education	Indonesia	10	Skills training : cooperation and collaboration in the community	Multistrada is a large manufacturer with authority from the Indonesian Ministry to operate a community college for local community skills standards strengthening. It includes collaboration with Bandung State Polytechnic and a foundation, YCAB, which engages with school drop outs. TAFE SI will provide a comprehensive program in quality skills training.
University of Southern Queensland	Governance	Pakistan	10	Leadership Program	We are providing leadership training to healthcare senior executives in Pakistan, in corporate governance using modern digital technologies necessary to manage a sustainable healthcare organisation. Participants will be trained in aspects such as managing a workforce, providing transparent financial reports and seamlessly integrating clinical skills with various management activities.
Victorian Institute of Forensic Medicine	Human Rights	Nepal	4	Forensic Odontology Capacity Development - Nepal	Senior dentists from the Nepalese Institute of Medicine have requested a professional attachment in forensic odontology with a focus on practical aspects of identification, bite mark analysis and age estimation and new trends ( use of radiology in age estimation and identification), record keeping and disaster victim identification and mass casualty management.
Griffith University	Governance	Indonesia	17	'Building Government Capacity in Papua'	This Fellowship will work with selected fellows from public sector departments in Papua to develop a strategic understanding of the role of an HRD strategy; development and implementation of a strategy; and finally leadership skills so Fellows play an active role in implementing the work plans developed from this training.
University of Sydney	Food Security	Cameroon	1	Capacity building in research and laboratory skills for postharvest pest control in maize for Cameroon	The Fellowship is to address food security in Cameroon and across central Africa, through enhancing the research and laboratory skills of a research entomologist to enable her to develop natural pesticide products for control of maize storage pests.
James Cook University	Health	PNG, Palau, Nuie, Solomon Islands, Kiribati, Fiji, Cook Islands	19	Mental health upskilling course for nurses and community health workers in the Pacific	A mental health training program will be offered to mental health nurses and community health workers from across the Pacific. The course will upskill participants in mental health theory and skills as well as education techniques to ensure they impart the new knowledge upon their return.
Queensland Department of Education, Training and Employment (DETE)	Education	Philippines	12	Building Capabilities in Quality STEM Teaching in the Philippines	Professional development program for Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) secondary school teachers, principals and subject coordinators from the Philippines
Clinical Oncological Society of Australia	Health	Fiji	1	Asia-Pacific Mentoring Program	The fellowship is open to health professionals who have completed their primary training and working at mid-career level in clinical oncology, in a developing country within the Asia-Pacific. The host institution contributes to the recipient's ability to make a lasting difference to an important aspect of cancer care in their home country.
Queensland University of Technology	Mining for Development	Ecuador	5	Strengthening the capacity of the National Mining Enterprise to foster sustainable mining for economic development. Ecuador	Assist the National Mining Enterprise (ENAMI-EP) to strengthen its capacity to effectively develop and manage regulatory and institutional frameworks for the resources sector, that meets the needs of government, industry and civil society to promote sustainable mining practices for economic development.
(37 Australian Organisations)		(51 developing countries)	(733 Fellows)	(58 Fellowships)	TOTAL RECOMMENDED