Papua New Guinea

Applying for an Australia Awards scholarship

Australia Awards scholarships in Papua New Guinea

Australia's international development assistance in Papua New Guinea helps promote prosperity, reduce poverty, and enhance political stability.

Australia Awards are prestigious international awards offered by the Australian Government to the next generation of global leaders for development. Through study and research, recipients develop the skills and knowledge to drive change and help build enduring people-to-people links with Australia.

Applicants are assessed on their professional and personal qualities, academic competence and, most importantly, their potential to impact on development challenges in Papua New Guinea.

Applications are strongly encouraged from women, people with disability and other marginalised groups.

Priority fields of study

The priority areas of study for Papua New Guinea are:

- Agriculture
- Education
- Health
- Governance
- Law & justice
- Transport and infrastructure

The governments of Australia and Papua New Guinea regularly review these areas of study together and adjust the emphasis of the program. Detailed information on priority areas of study can be found at:

www.australiaawardspng.org

Level of study

Australia Awards scholarships provide citizens of Papua New Guinea with the opportunity to obtain a qualification at an Australian tertiary institution.

Awards will be offered for commencement in 2023 within the following allocations:

- Masters by Coursework (approx. 90% awards) – majority of awards will be offered at the Masters-level qualification to extend technical expertise across the priority sectors.
- Undergraduate (approx. 5% awards) - a limited number of undergraduate awards will be offered for bachelor degree programs not available in Papua New Guinea and contributes to a priority sector and/or for people living with a disability.
- PhD and Masters by Research (approx. 5% awards) - a limited number of research awards will be offered to strengthen the capacity of Papua New Guinean teaching and research institutions.
