Applying for an Australia for ASEAN scholarship

Australia for ASEAN scholarships in Thailand

At the ASEAN-Australia Special Summit held in March 2024, Australia's Prime Minister announced 75 Australia for ASEAN Scholarships to support emerging ASEAN leaders to study in Australia and advance the ASEAN Outlook on the Indo-Pacific (AOIP).

Australia for ASEAN scholarships are prestigious international awards offered by the Australian Government to the next generation of leaders from ASEAN member states. Through study and research, recipients develop the skills and knowledge to drive change and help build enduring people-to-people links with Australia.

The Australian Government and Australia's world class university sector are jointly contributing to these scholarships, demonstrating Australia's whole-of-nation commitment to the region. The following universities are partnering with this program:

- Australian National University
- Bond University
- Deakin University
- Griffith University
- Monash University
- Queensland University of Technology
- RMIT University
- Swinburne University of Technology
- University of Adelaide
- University of Melbourne
- University of New South Wales
- University of Queensland
- University of Southern Queensland
- University of Tasmania.

Australia for ASEAN scholars will also participate in an ASEAN Emerging Leaders Program, which will provide a range of learning, networking and development opportunities.

Applications are strongly encouraged from women, people with disability and marginalised groups.

Applicants are assessed on their professional and personal qualities, academic competence and their potential to impact on one of the four priority areas of cooperation: maritime, connectivity, economic, and sustainable development cooperation.

Priority fields of study

The priority areas of study are:

- Maritime
- Connectivity
- Economic
- Sustainable Development Cooperation

Detailed information on priority areas of study can be found at: <https://asean.org/speechandstatement/asean-outlook-on-the-indo-pacific/>

Level of study

Australia for ASEAN scholarships provide an opportunity to obtain a Master by research or Master by coursework qualification at an Australian tertiary institution. Students wishing to undertake a Masters by research degree are strongly encouraged to apply.

Scholarships will be offered for commencement in 2025.

Australia for ASEAN Scholarship benefits

Australia for ASEAN scholarships are offered for the minimum period necessary for the individual to complete the academic program specified by the Australian education institution, including any preparatory training.

Scholarship recipients will receive the following:

- return air travel
- a one-off establishment allowance on arrival
- full tuition fees
- contribution to living expenses
- introductory academic program
- overseas student health cover for the duration of the scholarship
- supplementary academic support
- fieldwork allowance for research students and masters by coursework which has a compulsory fieldwork component
- a place in the ASEAN Emerging Leaders Program.

Eligibility criteria

Australia for ASEAN scholarship applicants must meet all eligibility requirements detailed in the Australia Awards Scholarships Policy Handbook, available at: dfat.gov.au/about-us/publications/Pages/australia-awards-scholarships-policy-handbook.aspx
