Our Program Logic

Australian Volunteers | Australian Aid

GOAL
Global volunteering supports locally-led change and the realisation of the Sustainable Development Goals

OBJECTIVE
Australia has strong, mutual relationships with people and communities across the Pacific, Asia and Africa that contribute to achieving equitable development outcomes

END OF PROGRAM OUTCOMES

Partner organisations are supported to progress their development objectives	Key stakeholders in Australia and partner countries appreciate the value of volunteering	Program participants gain greater cultural awareness and build stronger connections across countries

INTERMEDIATE OUTCOMES

Partner organisations have strengthened their capacity and gained from the program	The benefit of volunteering is recognized and promoted by partner organisations, Australian organisations, volunteers and DFAT to their networks	Program participants gain professionally and personally
Partner organisations have a strategic rationale for participation in the program, provide a safe and productive working environment, and contribute to quality assignments	Innovations, learning and program achievements are promoted and shared in the international volunteering and development community by the program and key stakeholders	Volunteers complete their assignment well and learn from their partner organisation
Relevant and diverse partnerships with partner organisations are established, maintained and supported by DFAT, the program and Australian organisations	Innovative approaches to, and alternative models of volunteering are designed and tested to expand the program's reach and adaptive capability	The program is inclusive of and accessible to a diverse range of people
