All potential grants will still be considered against the outcomes of the program (and/or criteria in these guidelines) and value for money.

8. The grant selection process

8.1 Assessment of grant applications

We first review your application against the eligibility criteria (see Section 6).

We assess the extent to which the application represents value for money through identifying:

8.2 Who will assess applications?

The Board may seek additional input from relevant Australian missions overseas about you or your application. They may also seek additional information from other Commonwealth agencies, even if the sources are not nominated by you as referees. If the selection process identifies unintentional errors in your application, you may be contacted to correct or explain the information.

Where a grantee fails to meet the obligations of the grant agreement, the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade may withhold or suspend the funding to the grantee; and/or require the grantee to repay all or part of the grant.
