ANNEX II

SCHEDULE OF THE UNITED KINGDOM

INTRODUCTORY NOTES

1. In the interpretation of an entry, all elements of the entry shall be considered. The Description element shall prevail over all other elements.

3. The Existing Measures element in this Schedule identifies, for transparency purposes, a non-exhaustive list of existing measures that apply to the sectors, subsectors or activities covered by each entry at the date of entry into force of this Agreement for the United Kingdom.
Sector: All

Sub-Sector:

Industry Classification:

Obligations Concerned: Market Access (Article 10.5)

Description: Cross-Border Trade in Services

1. Services considered as public utilities at a national or local level may be subject to public monopolies or to exclusive rights granted to private operators.

2. Public utilities exist in sectors such as related scientific and technical consulting services, R&D services on social sciences and humanities, technical testing and analysis services, environmental services, health services, transport services and services auxiliary to all modes of transport. Exclusive rights on such services are often granted to private operators, for instance operators with concessions from public authorities, subject to specific service obligations. Given that public utilities often also exist at the sub-central level, detailed and exhaustive sector-specific scheduling is not practical. This entry shall not apply to telecommunications and to computer and related services.

Existing Measures:
Sector: All

Sub-Sector:

Industry Classification:

Obligations Concerned: Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment (Article 9.5 and Article 10.4)

Description: Investment and Cross-Border Trade in Services

1. The United Kingdom reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure that accords differential treatment to a Party or a non-Party under any international investment treaty or other trade agreement in force or signed prior to the date of entry into force of this Agreement for the United Kingdom.

2. The United Kingdom reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure that accords differential treatment to a Party or a non-Party under any existing or future bilateral or multilateral agreement with international organisations with economic objectives comprised wholly of European countries, or with any European country, which:

   (a) creates an internal market in services and investment;

   (b) grants the right of establishment; or

   (c) requires the approximation of legislation in one or more economic sectors.

To the extent possible, the United Kingdom shall notify the other Parties prior to adopting a measure inconsistent with Article 9.5 (Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment) or Article 10.4 (Most-Favoured-Nation Treatment) with respect to such a bilateral or multilateral agreement. At the request of a Party, the Parties shall enter into negotiations to disapply this entry in respect of such measures.

An internal market in services and investment means an area without internal frontiers in which the free movement of services, capital and persons is ensured.
The right of establishment means an obligation to abolish in substance all barriers to establishment among the parties to the regional economic integration agreement by the entry into force of that agreement. The right of establishment shall include the right of nationals of the parties to the regional economic integration agreement to set up and operate enterprises under the same conditions provided for nationals under the law of the country where such establishment takes place.

The approximation of legislation means:

(a) the alignment of the legislation of one or more of the parties to the regional economic integration agreement with the legislation of the other party or parties to that agreement; or

(b) the incorporation of common legislation into the law of the parties to the regional economic integration agreement.

Such alignment or incorporation shall take place, and shall be deemed to have taken place, only at such time that it has been enacted in the law of the party or parties to the regional economic integration agreement.

3. The United Kingdom reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure that accords differential treatment to a Party or a non-Party relating to the right of establishment for nationals or enterprises through existing or future bilateral agreements with any of the following countries or principalities: Andorra, Monaco, San Marino or the Vatican City State.

4. The United Kingdom reserves the right to adopt or maintain any measure that accords differential treatment to a Party or a non-Party under existing or future agreements relating to:

(a) aviation;

(b) maritime matters, including salvage; or

(c) international road haulage (including combined transport – road or rail) and passenger transport (CPC 7111, 7112, 7121, 7122 and 7123).
