Dear <sup>s.33(a)(iii), s.33(b), s.47E(d)</sup>

I am writing to see if Ms Trump will be in New York during UNGA Leaders' Week and available to meet with Australian Foreign Minister Julie Bishop (bio below).

Ms Bishop is Deputy Leader of the governing conservative party. She is the most senior woman in the Australian Government. Ms Bishop is a strong supporter of the alliance with the United States. She has also played a strong role in the Coalition to defeat ISIS. <sup>s.33(a)(iii), s.47E(d)</sup>

s.33(a)(iii), s.47E(d)

I regret the short notice but would welcome your early advice on whether a meeting next week would be possible.

Kind regards,

Caroline Millar

Biography of the Hon Julie Bishop MP

Julie Bishop is the Minister for Foreign Affairs in Australia's Federal Coalition Government. She is also the Deputy Leader of the Liberal Party and has served as the Member for Curtin in the House of Representatives since 1998.

Minister Bishop was sworn in as Australia's first female Foreign Minister on 18 September 2013 following four years in the role of Shadow Minister for Foreign Affairs and Trade.

As Minister for Foreign Affairs, Minister Bishop has overseen the single largest expansion of Australia's overseas diplomatic presence in 40 years, introduced the New Colombo Plan to support Australian undergraduate students to study and undertake internships in the Indo-Pacific region, and established the innovationXchange within the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade to develop bold and creative solutions to long standing development challenges.

She has strengthened Australia's key strategic and economic relationships and enhanced Australia's engagement with Pacific Island countries, including normalising relations with Fiji, leading international recovery and reconstruction efforts in Vanuatu and establishing a school of government in Papua New Guinea.

Minister Bishop promoted Australia's interests at the United Nations Security Council, playing a lead role in the international response to the downing of Malaysian Airlines flight MH17 over Ukraine.

She previously served as a Cabinet Minister in the Howard Government as Minister for Education, Science and Training and as the Minister Assisting the Prime Minister for Women's Issues. Prior to this, Minister Bishop was Minister for Ageing.

Minister Bishop has also served on a number of parliamentary and policy committees including as Chair of the Joint Standing Committee on Treaties.

Before entering Parliament Minister Bishop was a commercial litigation lawyer at Perth firm Clayton Utz, becoming a partner in 1985, and managing partner in 1994.

Minister Bishop graduated with a Bachelor of Laws from the University of Adelaide in 1978 and attended Harvard Business School in Boston in 1996, completing the Advanced Management Program for Senior Managers.

Hi Greg, there's no UN angle/event as far as I'm aware – it appears to be a bilateral meeting that happens to be taking place in New York. I'll also send on a separate email trail suggesting the meeting could happen in Washington if it can't be scheduled for New York.

Thanks

Just copied you in on a message on Ivanka – who would be happy to meet the FM. I'll leave it with you for now but if for any reason the timing doesn't work we can always try for DC. But she is only here for two days and they may be pretty full.

Hi s.33(a)(iii), s.33(b), s.47E(d)

Thanks for clarifying that the possible venue would be either the US/UN mission or the Palace Hotel. We are still trying to work through Minister Bishop's commitments on Wednesday morning and there are a couple of clashes.

It looks like the 9.30 – 11.00 window could be very difficult for Minister Bishop. Would Ms Trump be available for a 9am on Wednesday instead?

Best, Caitlin

Dear <sup>s.33(a)(iii), s.33(b), s.47E(d)</sup>

Thank you very much for making contact and advising Ms Trump's availability.

We are currently confirming Minister Bishop's precise availability on Wednesday morning and will get back to you as soon as possible on a likely 30 minute window.

Are you able to advise proposed location/venue for the meeting? This will assist in determining likely availability.

Regards Caitlin
