- The Pre-COP Leaders' Event in Tuvalu and Fiji is a unique opportunity to highlight the climate exposure, resilience and leadership of the Pacific and Small Island Developing States (SIDS), providing a compelling platform for leaders to shape global climate discussions from the frontlines of climate change.
    - We are focused on bringing global leaders to the region to see climate impacts and solutions firsthand and to elevate Pacific priorities ahead of COP31.
- Australia, Fiji, and Tuvalu have worked closely to invite a cross-regional set of global leaders to attend the Pre-COP Leaders' Event in Fiji and Tuvalu on 5-6 October 2026
