Dear Recipient Name

I refer to your application for certification under the Australian Government's visa policy for at-risk Afghan employees.

I am pleased to advise that the Minister for Foreign Affairs has certified you as eligible to apply for a visa under this policy.

This represents the successful completion of the first step of your application for your visa. Please note that this certification does not guarantee you or your family members a visa to enter and live in Australia.

To apply for a permanent visa to Australia, you are now required to submit an Offshore Humanitarian Visa application to the Department of Home Affairs. Information on how to apply is provided in the attached document.

Please note that, from this point onwards, the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade has no further role in determining the outcome of your visa application, and will not be able to provide you with updates on the progress of your application.

Yours sincerely

Dear Recipient Name

Thank you for your application for certification under the Australian Government's visa policy for at-risk Afghan employees.

Australia's Minister for Foreign Affairs has considered your application. Unfortunately, you are not eligible for certification under this visa policy. However, on 18 August 2021, the Australian Government announced that an initial 3,000 humanitarian places will be allocated to Afghan nationals within Australia's 13,750 annual program. Particular priority will be given to persecuted minorities, women and children, and those who have links to Australia.

We encourage you to investigate your options fully, including under this humanitarian stream. The Department of Home Affairs is responsible for the processing of visa applications and your name and contact has been forwarded to the Department. Further information can be found on the Department of Home Affairs website (www.homeaffairs.gov.au) should you wish to make an application..

You may also wish to contact a migration agent to discuss these avenues. Further information can be found on the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority's (OMARA) website (www.mara.gov.au).

Yours sincerely

Afghanistan and Regional Branch
