Privacy Notice

The Protocol Branch of the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) collects, uses and discloses your personal information to manage the presence in Australia of representatives of official foreign missions and international organisations, their locally engaged staff, eligible family members, private domestic workers and honorary consuls. Your personal information may be disclosed to other Australian Government agencies, as well as State and Territory Government agencies, for this purpose. These agencies could include (but are not limited to) the Department of Home Affairs, the Australian Taxation Office, the Australian Federal Police (and State and Territory police), as well as the National Capital Authority. The Protocol Privacy Collection Statement contains further specific information about how the Protocol Branch will handle your personal information, and DFAT's Privacy Policy contains information about how you can access and seek to correct your personal information, or make a complaint about DFAT's privacy practices.
