New Colombo Plan Scholarship Program - 2018 Round

Guide to nominating students in New Colombo Plan Online

The following guide aims to assist universities in submitting nominations for the 2018 round of the New Colombo Plan Scholarship Program using New Colombo Plan Online (NCP Online).

The scholarship nomination form will allow you to nominate up to 10 students from your university.

It is not necessary to complete the entire nomination form in one session. The form will be saved each time you add a nominee or manually save a completed section, allowing you to continue later.

You may withdraw your previous submission, edit and re-submit the form multiple times up until the end of the nomination period (11.59 pm AEST on 31 July 2017). The form as submitted at the end of the nomination period will be regarded as final.

If you experience any technical issues using the nomination form or have any questions, please contact the NCP Scholarships team at ncp.scholarships@education.gov.au.

Information required prior to completing the nomination form:

The following details about each student will be requested in the scholarship nomination form:

- Title
- Name
- Gender
- Date of birth
- Email
- Mobile phone
- Degree in which the nominee is enrolled
- Official Academic transcript
- Intended Host Location (where known)
- GPA Score

Nomination Form – Home Page

The screenshot shows the 'New Colombo Plan Online' home page. At the top, there is a blue header with the Australian Government logo on the left and the 'NEW COLOMBO PLAN' logo on the right, which includes the tagline 'Connect to Australia's future - study in the region'. Below the header, a navigation bar contains a home icon and the text 'Nomination form' on the left, and a user icon and 'Sign out' on the right. The main content area features the title 'New Colombo Plan Online' followed by a paragraph explaining that NCP Online is the nomination and application website for the New Colombo Plan Scholarship Program. It states that the program provides opportunities for Australian undergraduate students, between 18 and 28 years of age, to undertake study, internships/mentorships and language training in eligible locations in the Indo-Pacific. Further information is available at the New Colombo Plan website and the Scholarship Program Guidelines 2018. A link is provided to view the New Colombo Plan Liaison Officer for Scholarships at each Australian university. Below this, a paragraph states that enquiries relating to eligibility, nominations and applications may be directed to ncp.scholarships@education.gov.au. The page is divided into two sections: 'Nominations' and 'Applications'. The 'Nominations' section states that the nomination period for the 2018 Round is 1 July – 29 July 2017 (11:59 pm AEST). The 'Applications' section states that the application period for the 2018 Round is 1 August – 31 August 2017 (11:59 pm AEST).

Introduction Tab

You will be sent an email granting you access to NCP Online. Once you click on the link, you will be taken to New Colombo Plan Online. Enter the pass key contained in your email to access your university's nomination form. The 'Introduction' tab contains a number of issues for universities to consider when making nominations, as well as the dates of the nomination period for reference.

You can print the nomination form at any stage during the nomination process.

University Tab

The 'University' tab lists the current New Colombo Plan Liaison Officers for Scholarships for your university and their contact details. If any of the information is out of date or incorrect please email the New Colombo Plan Scholarships team at ncp.scholarships@education.gov.au to have it amended.

The screenshot shows the 'University' tab of the Scholarship Nomination Form. The page header includes the Australian Government logo and the New Colombo Plan logo with the tagline 'Connect to Australia's future - Study in the region'. The form title is 'Scholarship Nomination Form' and the current step is '1. University'. A navigation bar shows 'Introduction', '1. University', and '2. Nominees'. A message states: 'If the information below is incorrect, please contact the New Colombo Plan Scholarships Team at ncp.scholarships@education.gov.au'. Below this is a text input field for 'University name'. A section titled 'New Colombo Plan Liaison Officers for Scholarships' contains a table with columns: '#', 'Name', 'Position', 'Phone', and 'Email'. The table is currently empty. At the bottom, there are 'Previous' and 'Next' buttons, a 'View as printable PDF' button, and a 'Submit' button. The footer contains a disclaimer, copyright, privacy, and contact us links, along with the ID: IDAPP00251, Build 2016.4.16.1, 10.23.10.104.

Nominees Tab

The 'Nominees' tab allows you to enter nominee details. Clicking the blue 'Add nominee' button from the 'Nominees' tab will open up a dialogue box in which you can enter the student's details. All mandatory fields are required in order to save the nominee details.

As it is an eligibility criterion of the New Colombo Plan Scholarship Program that all nominees must be between 18 and 28 (inclusive) years of age on 1 January 2018, the 'add nominee' dialogue box will not allow a student's details to be saved if their birthdate falls outside this range.

If the nominee's intended host location is known please select it from the list, otherwise leave the response as 'Unknown'. The intended host location is indicative only. Each applicant is required to make a final determination of their host location as part of their application.

A new field has been added 'Average Percentage Score for Completed Units'. This is the grading percentage average calculated from the nominee's transcript. A minimum score of 70% is required. The 'add nominee' dialogue box will not allow a student's details to be saved if the GPA is less than 70%.

Nominees Tab- With a Nominee

The 'Nominees' tab will display all of the students, nominated by your university in alphabetical order. At least one nominee must be listed before the nomination form can be submitted. Official academic transcripts must also be attached for each nominee using the 'Upload transcript' button. You may attach multiple files to each nominee record, as appropriate.

Please note each nominee's age will be displayed as at 1 January 2018, not the current date.

You may also edit nominee information or remove nominees.

The screenshot shows the 'Scholarship Nomination Form' interface. At the top, there are logos for the Australian Government and the NEW COLOMBO PLAN. The page title is 'Scholarship Nomination Form' with tabs for 'Introduction', '1. University', and '2. Nominees'. A message states: 'Please nominate up to 10 students using the 'Add nominee' button below. Students are displayed alphabetically by surname as ranking is not applicable to nominations. - Each nominee must have at least one official academic transcript showing their courses and scores.

Declaration

A 'Declaration' tab will appear once all information has been completed in the preceding tabs. Please read the declaration and linked privacy notice before proceeding. To submit the nomination form, the New Colombo Plan Liaison Officer for Scholarships must complete the declaration to confirm that: the students have been nominated by the university; certain eligibility criteria have been met; all nominees have undergone a police check within the last 12 months and nominees consent to their personal information being disclosed and; the privacy notice has been read and understood.

Once all the declaration boxes have been ticked, type your name and position and submit the nomination form. The person who submits the nomination form must be one of the New Colombo Plan Liaison Officers for Scholarships listed on the 'University' tab.

Once you submit the form an automated email will be sent to the New Colombo Plan Liaison Officer(s) for Scholarships at your university. This email acts as verification of your submission and will contain a PDF version of the submitted nomination form for your records.

The screenshot shows a web application window titled "Submit nomination form" with a blue header and a close button. The main content area is titled "Declaration" and contains a list of confirmation items, each with a checked checkbox. The items are:

- All students have been nominated by [University] to apply for the New Colombo Plan Scholarship 2018 round.
- All nominees are Australian citizens.
- All nominees are currently enrolled at an onshore campus of the home university.
- All nominees have never previously been awarded a New Colombo Plan Scholarship.
- If successful, all nominees will be undertaking a Bachelor Degree or Bachelor Honours Degree at the commencement of the scholarship.
- All nominees have been made aware of and consent to their personal information being disclosed to the Department of Education and Training and the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade for the purposes of the New Colombo Plan Scholarship Program.
- All nominees have attained a minimum 70% grade average for their studies to date.
- All nominees have undergone a police check within the last 12 months (adverse findings must be notified to the Secretariat at ncp.secretariat@dfat.gov.au)
- I have read and understood the nomination privacy notice (link opens new window).

Below the list are three input fields: "Full name:" (with a red asterisk), "Position:" (with a red asterisk), and "Date:" (with a pre-filled date of 23/03/2017). A note below the fields states: "By typing your name into this box, it is considered that you have signed this form and all the information is true and correct." At the bottom right, there are "Submit" and "Cancel" buttons. The left sidebar shows navigation options like "Nomination", "Scholars", "Introduction", "Add nominee", and "Previous".

Privacy Notice

Privacy Act 1988

The Australian Government Department of Education and Training and the Australian Government Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade are bound by the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988 (Privacy Act). Schedule 1 of the Privacy Act outlines the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs), which prescribe the rules for handling personal information.

Without collecting Personal Information of nominees, which has been collected and disclosed to us by your university, the Department of Education and Training and the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade will not be able to process your university's nominations and provide an application pack to your nominees.

Personal information provided to the Department of Education and Training and the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade in relation to nominees under the New Colombo Plan Scholarship Program will be used by the Department of Education and Training and the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade for the following purpose (the purpose):

- administering and performance monitoring the New Colombo Plan Scholarship Program.

The Department of Education and Training and the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade will not otherwise use or disclose the Personal Information for a purpose other than that identified in this Privacy Notice, except where:

- the Department of Education and Training and the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade have the nominee's consent to use or disclose the Information for that other purpose;
- the nominee would reasonably expect a use or disclosure to be made for that other purpose and it is related to the purposes outlined in this Privacy Notice;
- the use or disclosure of the information for another purpose is required or authorised by or under an Australian law or a court/tribunal order;
- permitted general situation exists (such as serious threats to life, health or safety of an individual or the public; suspected unlawful activity or serious misconduct; missing persons; legal or equitable claims; alternative dispute resolution processes; or diplomatic or consular functions); or
- the use or disclosure is reasonably necessary for enforcement related activities by or on behalf of an enforcement body.

The Department of Education and Training and the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade may disclose Personal Information in relation to nominees under the New Colombo Plan Scholarship Program for the same purpose listed above to the following recipients:

- other Australian Government departments and agencies, including the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet;
- Australian Parliamentarians and Parliamentary committees; and
- contractors and agents of the Department of Education and Training and the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade.
