

Performance of Australian Development Cooperation Report 2022–23

Results snapshot

Australia is contributing to critical needs in our region and globally

23.8 million

vulnerable women, men, girls and boys provided with emergency assistance in conflict and crisis situations

3+ million

couple-years of contraceptive protection made available for sexual and reproductive health

10+ million

people immunised with Australian support

31.5+ million

new or improved therapeutics, diagnostics, vaccines and additional equipment to which Australia has contributed that are accessible in partner countries

248,310

additional girls and boys enrolled in school

165.4 million

people reached with new or improved social protection programs, including remote communities

34

countries Australia has supported in last 12 months to strengthen governance systems

248,879

services provided to women and girl survivors of violence, such as counselling

488,942

female entrepreneurs provided with financial and/or business development services

$422.2 million

of Australian ODA provided in budget finance to respond to the COVID-19 pandemic

330

examples of partnering with the private sector and other partners to ensure supply lines were open during the COVID-19 pandemic

Our global partnerships are supporting collective action

Australian NGO Cooperation Program (ANCP)

4.3 million

people received improved health services

230,000

additional people received sufficient food

30,000

women supported to assume leadership roles

$160.7 million

contributed to the International Development Association, the concessional arm of the World Bank

4.67 GW

renewable energy generation capacity

23.9 million

beneficiaries of social safety net programs

This funding contributed to:

Development finance is an increasingly powerful catalyst for enhancing our impact

$7.4 billion

Australia's development finance portfolio

3:1

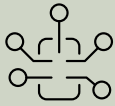

programs in the portfolio have been mobilising $3 for every $1 invested

$100 million

dedicated funding through the Pacific Climate Infrastructure Financing Partnership

We are deploying expertise from across the Australian Government to tackle regional challenges

CSIRO has worked with partners in Indonesia, Thailand and Vietnam to develop the Indo-Pacific Plastics Innovation Network, supporting efforts to translate science, technology and innovation into real-world solutions to plastic pollution.

A team from Agriculture Victoria trained and supported staff from the Timor-Leste Animal Health Service in livestock disease diagnostics and surveillance, helping control African swine fever and prepare for potential outbreaks of disease.

Australian Government Solicitor lawyers provided training in legal reasoning and legal writing in Vanuatu and Papua New Guinea.

We are continuing to strengthen how we work and promote genuine partnerships

Our development cooperation is effective

Target 85%

86%

Investments rated as satisfactory for effectiveness and efficiency

We are working hard to meet our gender equality ambition

Target 80%

75%

Investments that address gender effectively

Investing in Women – Client Engagement Framework (CEF) Masterclass in Manila, Philippines. Credit: Investing in Women / Aileen Dimatatac

Our development cooperation is increasingly using local actors to deliver

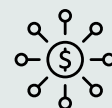

3,635

local personnel employed (up 15% from the previous year)

2,451

local contracts and grants (up 8% from the previous year)

$630 million

total value of local contracts and grants (up 18% from the previous year)